

Moravian Unity offering 2019

The Moravian Church in South Asia is made up of growing communities across India and Nepal, energetic and excited to see the spread the Good News – from remote rural villages to major cities.

In Assam, the work is based from Binnakandi with work continuing to develop in Latingkhal and Haflong.

Haflong is a Hill station around 130 km from Binnakandi, the journey takes 5 hours by road. The community originally built a bamboo church to meet in, however it has started to subside down the hillside.

Over the last five years, the Church in Binnakandi have supported Haflong in raising funds to buy a new plot of land. The 2019 Unity Prayer Day offering will be committed to the building of a permanent Church and facilities that will enable the new congregation to focus on their mission to reach out, provide education and enrich the community.

Special envelopes marked “Unity Offering” will be available in the bulletin to receive your offering each Sunday of March. It is our desire to support our brothers and sisters in India as we journey in faith together.

Assam (/əˈsɑːm/ (listen)) is an Indian state, in the south eastern Himalayas along the Brahmaputra and Barak River valleys. Assam covers an area of 78,438 km (30,285 sq mi). It is bordered by 9 other states and the rest of India via the Siliguri Corridor, 22 kilometres (14 mi). Assam is known for tea and silk. Wikipedia

The Assamese economy is aided by wildlife tourism and receives more rainfall than most parts of India making look green all year round.

The state has conserved the one-horned Indian rhinoceros, wild water buffalo, pygmy hog, tiger and various Asiatic birds, and is one of the last wild habitats for the Asian elephant. Assam government
